Fair Weather, Fair Election, Fair

Returns, Fair Results, and No

Troops at the Polls.

The elections in Ohio and Iowa yesterday passed off quietly and resulted in Republican victories.

In Ohio the Republican State ticket is elected by about 25,000, and a majority of Republicans are elected to both houses of the legislature.

This result not only renews the State to the Republican cause, but insures the election of a Republican United States Senator to succeed

Mr. Thurman, whose term expires in 1881.

In Iowa the combined Democratic and Greenback forces failed to overcome the usual

Republican majority on the State ticket, and the Hon. William G. Thompson,

Stewart Republican, is elected to the vacancy in the House occasioned by the death of the Hon. Kosh Clark.

The following dispatches furnish the details of the returns so far as received up to 4

a. m.:

General Grant in the Northwest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—A Vancouver dispatch says: "The steamer St. Paul arrived here at 6:15 o'clock yesterday. At every town on the river General Grant was cheered by the assembled crowds. Several isolated houses attracted attention with shotguns and the waving of flags and handkerchiefs. A salute of twenty guns was fired at the dock, while the First Regiment band played the "Conquering Hero Comes." All the troops and the whole population of Vancouver were gathered at the dock on the St. Paul's arrival. Two hundred citizens bore a delay of an hour occurred before the party made their appearance. At 6:35 o'clock General Grant came on deck and was introduced by General Howe to the officers of the post and Mayor Johnson, who said, "I had the pleasure of landing with you here twenty-seven years ago," and to the committee of reception. General Grant, looking the arm of General Morrow, walked to the end of the dock where the soldiers greeted him with cheers. The party then took carriage for General Howard's residence, preceded by the land and soldiers.

General Howard, resident of the city, and Governor E. P. Foster, Secretary N. H. Owens,

Surveyor-General William McKelvey, Auditor T. M. Reed, Hon. J. R. Hayden, Judge John P. Hoyt, Hon. E. J.

Cott, President of the council, Hon. George H.

Stewart (speaker of the House), and thirty members of the legislature of Washington Territory entered the house in a body and were introduced to the members of the Territory by the Governor. General Grant was seated in the front of the house, and the Governor made a few remarks.

The very pleasant duty has devolved on me of presenting to you the members of the a drift of abandoning a ship. At a signal the entire crew took to the boats and life rafts in surprisingly short time. After lunch on the Tallapoosa the Secretary and his family left the frigate Minnesota, Captain S. B. Lee, which has some 350 boys aboard, many of them from St. Louis and the West. Here an extended drill and examination of the boys took place to decide who should wear a number of handsome medals that had been kindly offered by friends as presents. The first prize, a handsome silver medal, was won by Thomas M. Johnson, the seamanship he also secured two others. A beautiful medal presented by Mrs. Admiral Dahlgren, was awarded to J. J. Donovon.

The Secretary was highly pleased and addressed the boys with a few words of encouragement and cheer. The Constitution or Old Ironides was visited, but as she has only been in commission for a short time the inspection was principally confined to the vessel.

The steamer Kearsarge was next visited, and after inspection a torpedo was set off under the supervision of the Secretary and exciting much curiosity. The Secretary and party then visited the Powhatan, and were entertained by Admiral Wynn. The officers of the fleet give a hop tonight at the Hygeia Hotel, which will be largely attended by army and navy officers.

A Valuable Coop of Chickens.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—An afternoon paper states that on Saturday night last a commissioner in this city sold to a marketman four coops of chickens which had been received from the West by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. When the coops were being delivered to the marketman, the coops were placed on the bottom of one of them, and on opening the roll it was found to contain $5,000 in bills.

On a further search in the same coop another roll was found which contained $2,500. It is now being investigated by the police.
